

Three Brooks Nature Conservation Group

<http://www.three-brooks.info>

Grass Cutting

Saturday 4 August 2007

14 people turned up including 2 new folk, Andy and Pauline, who were very welcome. We continued last month's haycut at Webb's Wood and finished the area - some parts were left uncut as they were more wildflower than grass areas anyway. Robin and Rachel identified a plant we think was upright spurge, which is quite rare. (We didn't cut that!)